

ILLUSTRATED

Evening Ledger

SATURDAY
June 24, 1916

HOSTS GATHER AT EVERY STATION TO SEE FIRST BRIGADE REGIMENTS OF N. G. P. START FOR CAMP

SWEETHEARTS, WIVES AND MOTHERS CROWD AROUND DEPARTING TRAINS TO WAVE LAST GOOD-BYS TO CITY'S REGIMENTS

The upper picture reveals the crowd which gathered at the Broad street and Washington avenue station to see the 3d Regiment off. Below, the 2d Regiment is shown descending the stairs to the train at the Huntingdon street station. Inset is a detachment of State Engineers around a supply wagon just before their departure from 2026 Sanson street.